About Me

My wife, Allison, and I are long-time residents of Athens, Alabama and have been married since XXXX. We have three daughters (the oldest is deceased) and eleven grandchildren. Throughout my life, I've had three different careers. I was a teacher and basketball coach for 15 years — coaching the team to a State Championship title in 1976. I was also a tool and die maker at General Motors before I began my nearly 30 year-career in the financial industry.

I'm active in my community through several different avenues: I'm Chairman of Historical Commission, Chairman of Athens Storytelling Festival, active on the Limestone County School Advisory Board, Rotarian, and serve as an Elder at Marion Street Church of Christ where I do mission work to South Mexico, State of Chiapas.
